A Dialogue with Jesus

These are the pure words of Jesus. He speaks in candid truth on love, religion, and even his life. This dialogue is from the Divine man named Jesus that existed in human form before the word Christian or Christianity existed and any Religion was created out of the interpretation of his words.

Jesus Joins the Dialogue

In this book, Jesus shares startling revelations about his lifetime, the changes that are coming to Earth, the role of the spiritual realm, and guidance for our current challenges on Earth, as we move into new interplanetary collaboration.

Messages from Jesus

Saint Ta, a spiritual healer and retired occupational therapist, has written a book of her conversations with Jesus. She says that Jesus has spoken to her since she was a child, and, in the winter of 2002, told her to write a series of books, bringing his messages and the teachings of other masters to humanity. In asking Jesus questions and receiving his answers, Saint Ta not only hears Jesus speak, but also sees him in spirit form. In Messages from Jesus, she describes her experiences with Jesus, including his giving her the name Saint Ta, and records his messages on a wide variety of topics, from how to cope with terrorism and fear, to life after death and how to love unconditionally.

New Teachings for an Awakening Humanity

In these dialogues, Jesus, now teaching as the fully awakened Christ shares how he awakened to this Reality and clarifies many of his own experiences when he too once experienced the state of mind we now identify as being a separate body in a world.

Dialogue on Awakening

What if heaven wasn't just meant to be experienced after we die? What if heaven can be enjoyed here on earth--right now? Bestselling author Andrew Farley shows us how to take in the beauty of heaven no matter what our circumstances. With insight firmly rooted in the reality of pain and suffering, Andrew assures readers that heaven is not some pie-in-the-sky dream for the future--it is now. He shows us how to awaken our five spiritual senses in order to see, hear, smell, taste, and feel the grace of heaven, even in the midst of trouble here on earth. He says the heaven we can experience in this life lies within us, far beyond the reach of the world--but well within our grasp.

Hindu-Christian Dialogue: Perspectives and Encounters

The early church turned the world upside down. With only a few followers of Jesus filled with the Holy Spirit, the gospel message of love and transformation spread like wildfire; it could not be contained or held back. What was the secret—the “Jesus way”—behind such a radical movement of the gospel? And what would it take for a spiritual renewal to happen today—in your church, your community, your world, and your own heart? Gerard Long, president of Alpha USA, has seen that spiritual awakenings tend to occur when God’s people understand their calling and prepare through prayer, personal renewal, and action. In Awakening, he offers a compelling vision for a “Jesus way” of widespread spiritual renewal, equipping you to better love people into the Kingdom of God. You’ll become empowered to live the abundant life given to us in Christ—and step out in faith to fulfill God’s calling.

Awakening to God

Have you ever wondered what Jesus would teach today or what he would share about his life two thousand years ago? What would he say about how to solve the world's problems or about Christianity? What would he say about God, being human, suffering, and the meaning and purpose of life? The answers to these questions and others are here, in these pages. Jesus exists and has always existed to serve humanity, and one way he is doing this today is through this channel, Gina Lake, and others. In What Jesus Wants You to Know Today, Jesus answers many questions about his life and teachings and shares his perspective on the world. He brings his message of love, once again, to the world and corrects the record by detailing the ways that Christianity has distorted his teachings. He wants you to know that you, too, have the potential to be a Christ, to be enlightened as he was, and he explains how this is possible. \“Knowing the truth is the beginning of changing the world. Too many were and still are living according to false beliefs instead of the truth. I came to earth to try to change that, to be a voice in a vast desert of misunderstandings, and I continue to be a voice for truth to the extent that I can from this dimension. I never really left you. I have never ceased being in service to humanity and your beautiful planet.\” -Jesus

What Jesus Wants You to Know Today: About Himself, Christianity, God, the World, and Being Human

Jesus still exists and is and has always been available to those who are devoted to him. This book is Jesus speaking from another dimension today. What we know about Jesus and what is obvious from the messages in this book is that Jesus is about love. His purpose in speaking to us today through these messages is to awaken the love within us that is our true nature. These messages are also intended to give you the experience of having a relationship with this wise and loving being we've known as Jesus the Christ, as he speaks to you as if you were sitting in his presence. The channeled messages from Jesus, which this book is based on, were part of weekly online video meetings, where Gina Lake and her husband, who is also a nondual spiritual teacher, give what they call Christ Consciousness energy transmissions. The channeled messages from Jesus were given before the transmission to prepare, teach, and inspire those who are there to receive the transmission. Many report feeling a transmission come through these channeled messages as well.

The Jesus Seeds

The Teaching of Christ was named the Way, Gospels and New Testament. These terms indicate three main aspects of its Reality. If we walk the Way that Jesus' Gospels (Good-Joyful News) are opening for us, then we will reach to the experience of the New Testament, that is, to a new connection with God. This brief and succinct work constitutes in a sense a prologue or an epilogue to a trilogy which is composed of two more works titled, The Inner Restoration of Christianity and Divinization: The Hidden Teaching within Divine Wisdom.

Spiritual Metamorphosis

Channeled by Rev. Cynthia Williams and Verling Chako Priest, PhD, Jesus/Jeshua ben Joseph's Jesus: My Beloved Connection to Humanity and the Sea is a fascinating read. Jesus begins by telling the reader who God is and how we too are gods. Jesus uses metaphors to help the reader understand how this could be. Taking the sacred number of 12, he weaves the twelve chapters into the rich tapestry of teachings for humanity's growth. He explains how humanity stepped down its energies on a soul level in order to experience duality in all its variations. Jesus has a deep love of the sea that is evident in the many miracles that he performed in multiplying fish and calming the waters. In our own history, we can find reference to dolphin-like creatures that walked upon the land during the day and returned to the sea at night. The teachings these beings brought forth were all about love, peace, and joy. Jesus communicated with the sea world on an ongoing basis. It is his desire for humanity to understand that there is more to his story than what is in the Bible. Jesus the Christ asks you to read this book, allowing yourself to awaken your own remembrance from that far distant time.

Jesus

In the fall of 2003, Rev. Lea Chapin began to receive divinely inspired messages from Jesus Christ. These teachings are known as The Twelve Mastery Teachings of Christ and were God's truth principles that Christ taught during His ministry on Earth over two thousand years ago. Christ's desire is for humanity to reawaken to their own divinity and to embrace and embody these teachings in their fullest essence. Each mastery lesson holds and carries the vibrational essence of Christ's healing power of love.

The Twelve Mastery Teachings of Christ

Jesus was human, like you and me. If the gospel is true, he still is. Christians worldwide believe that Jesus is God. But this belief wasn't the starting point for Jesus' earliest followers. While Jesus' humanity was a given for the disciples, his divinity was a truth they grew into believing—it was a journey of faith. As Christians today, we are also called into a faith journey—this time, to rediscover Jesus' humanity. Yes, we believe that Jesus is God, but do we truly believe that Jesus is human? And if so, how does that transform our own experience of being human? Through eye-opening yet down-to-earth reflections, Jesus Journey invites you to encounter Jesus again—as if for the first time—by experiencing his breathing, heart-beating, body-and-blood, crying-and-laughing humanity. Join Bible teacher and storyteller Trent Sheppard as he shines new light on the vibrant humanity of the historical Jesus through an up-close look at Jesus' relationships with Mary and Joseph, with the God he called Abba, with his closest friends and followers, and how, ultimately, his crucifixion and resurrection finally and forever redefine what we mean by the word God. Come encounter the human who radically transforms our view of God. Come encounter the God who forever changes what it means to be human.

Jesus Journey

While process philosophers and theologians have written numerous essays on Buddhist-Christian dialogue, few have sought to expand the current Buddhist-Christian dialogue into a "trilogue" by bringing the natural sciences into the discussion as a third partner. This was the topic of Paul O. Ingram's previous book, Buddhist-Christian Dialogue in an Age of Science. The thesis of the present work is that Buddhist-Christian dialogue in all three of its forms - conceptual, social engagement, and interior - are interdependent processes of creative transformation. Ingram appropriates the categories of Whitehead's process metaphysics as a means of clarifying how dialogue is now mutually and creatively transforming both Buddhism and Christianity. Drawing also on the work of theologian John Hicks and philosopher of science Imre Lakatos, Ingram develops an understanding of Buddhist-Christian dialogue in the context of a religious pluralism that is both open and dynamic and methodologically rigorous. Wide-ranging and full of insight, The Process of Buddhist-Christian Dialogue will be invaluable to scholars and students of comparative religion.

The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious Dialogue

How can the life and teachings of Jesus impact the most critical global problems in our world today? For the last twenty years, Brian McLaren has been unable to escape this life-shaping question. In Everything Must Change, he unveils a fresh and provocative vision of Jesus and his teachings, and how his message of hope can ignite purpose and passion to change the economic, environmental, military, political, and social crises that have overtaken our world. The Good News is more than a ticket to heaven. It is an invitation to personal change and a radical challenge for global transformation. Imagine what would happen: if we believed that God's will really could be done on earth and not just in heaven if the world's leading nations spent less on weapons and more on making peace, alleviating poverty, and caring for creation if a renewed understanding of Jesus and his message sparked a profound spiritual awakening in a global movement of faith, hope, and love If you are hungry for a fresh vision of what it means to be a person of faith, Everything Must Change shows what would happen when Jesus' Good News collides with a world in need.

The Process of Buddhist-Christian Dialogue

For almost two millennia, the story of Jesus has shaped the lives of countless people. Yet today, even though the majority of us grew up in a culture suffused by the mythos of Jesus, many of us feel disconnected from the essence of his teachings. With Resurrecting Jesus, Adyashanti invites us to rediscover the life and words of Jesus as a direct path to the most radical of transformations: spiritual awakening. Jesus crossed all of the boundaries that separated the people of his time because he viewed the world from the perspective of what unites us, not what divides us. In Resurrecting Jesus, Adya embarks on a fascinating reconsideration of the man known as Jesus, examining his life from birth to Resurrection to reveal a timeless model of awakening and enlightened engagement with the world. Through close consideration of the archetypal figures and events of the Gospels, Adya issues a call to "live the Christ" in a way that is unique to each of us. "When the eternal and the human meet," writes Adya, "that's where love is born—not through escaping our humanity or trying to disappear into transcendence, but through finding that place where they come into union." Resurrecting Jesus is a book for realizing this union in your own life, with heart and mind wide open to the mystery inside us all. With an all-new foreword by Episcopalian priest and scholar Cynthia Bourgeault.

Everything Must Change

The messages in this audiobook/book from Jesus, channeled by Gina Lake, will help you be in the world with greater peace and happiness. In these messages, Jesus addresses a variety of practical issues, such as the cause of suffering, how to heal and transform humanity, how to come together as one world, what the Law of Attraction really is, how to make love your default, how to connect soul to soul, what being honest and truthful means, how to create an environment conducive to your spiritual wellbeing, how to stay true to your Heart, how to be more present in your life, and how to find your life purpose. These channeled messages were part of weekly online video meetings, where Gina Lake and her husband, who is also a nondual spiritual teacher, give what they call Christ Consciousness energy transmissions. The messages from Jesus were given before the transmission to prepare, teach, and inspire those who are there to receive the transmission. Many report feeling a transmission come through these channeled messages as well.

Resurrecting Jesus

Jesus still exists and is and has always been available to those who are devoted to him. This book is Jesus speaking from another dimension today. His message, as channeled through Gina Lake, is meant to bring you into greater alignment with the Christ within you, with Christ Consciousness. It is also intended to give you the experience of having a relationship with the wise and gentle being we've known as Jesus the Christ, as he speaks to you as if you were sitting in his presence. In it, you will discover how to become the loving, strong, and peaceful being you are meant to be, which Jesus exemplified. By doing a few simple things and shifting your perspective in small ways, which are explained in each of the chapters, you can become a lover of life. Note from the author: This book, given to me by Jesus, is intended to serve a slightly different purpose than the other books I've been given from Jesus. Unlike those books, this one was created by speaking into a recorder and then transcribing those words. Consequently, it reads a little differently than the books that were intended as written works. The audio version of this book, of me channeling these words, is also available. The print book has been edited for clarity, but the tone of the audiobook has been retained. From the Introduction: "I am the one you have known as Jesus the Christ. I am speaking to you now through this channel to help you to know of my presence and to feel my presence in your life more fully. I want you to know that I exist here, in another dimension, that I am eternally present and continue to be the servant for all that is good, and that you-like me—are also eternal and will continue to exist once you leave this temporary body. You are so much more than you realize. I was but an example of what you are capable of as a human being. But in essence, you, like me, are much more than a human being. You are an eternal being. My intention in speaking to you through this book is to help you realize your true nature and to live as the best human being you can be. The challenges are great in the human body, but you can overcome them and become the loving and strong being you are meant to be. By making a practice of doing just a few things, you can become more aligned with your own divinity, with the goodness within you. In this book, I have laid out some of those things. These simple practices and understandings will help you be happy, more loving, and more at peace. These are the signs that you have arrived Home. You are meant to be happy, loving, and at peace. Allow me to be your guide Home. It is my deepest honor to serve you in this way, for in doing so, I am serving the Whole and giving glory to the Father, who has created all of life." "Gina's communion with Jesus has brought forth another jewel of truth. This time rather than just reading Jesus's words, you are invited to experience them and Him directly. Through Gina's voice, Jesus answers so many questions that have rumbled around the hearts and minds of all of us. Jesus is honest, direct, and sometimes blunt. Truth often is. Jesus speaks not only of truth in the highest expressions of the spiritual, but also in ways that are simple, practical, and useful in our daily lives. If you choose to buy this audiobook Falling in Love with Life, you will be gifting yourself a direct pathway out of confusion, frustration, and aloneness into an eternal Union that is an ongoing celebration of the Mystery of Life itself.\" -John Mark Stroud, Founder of One Who Wakes

Jesus Speaking

A unique and fresh work that seeks to present Jesus of Nazareth by his own words as HE intended people to view him and hear him. There are many people who know some facts about \"Jesus Christ\

The Humanity of Jesus in the Fourth Gospel

The Greatest Philosopher Who Ever Lived Obviously, Jesus did not teach at Pontifical Gregorian University or at Harvard or at Paris-Sorbonne or at Georgetown or at Oxford or at Salamanca or at any other university. He did not write some kind of a Platonist Republic, or an Aristotelian Ethics or Logic, or a Kantian Critique of Pure Reason, or a Hegelian Phenomenology of Spirit, or a Cartesian Discourse on the Method, or a Kierkegaardian Either/Or. He never quoted any philosopher from any part of the world and any culture. Yet, he surpassed them all. His philosophy was the way to the fullness of life, as he clearly indicated, \"I came that they might have life and have it to the full.\" This fullness of life is what this book all about. It is an invitation to rediscover, hit it off with, and stick with the Jesus of the Gospel—the divine guide for the higher consciousness, the master instructor for the fullness of life curriculum, and the greatest philosopher who ever lived for a meaningful and truly worthy life.

Jesus Speaking

Something extraordinary is about to happen on this planet. Humanity is about to create a new form of spirituality. This New Spirituality will allow humans to express their natural impulse toward the Divine without making one another wrong for the way in which they are doing it, and without killing one another in the name of it. When the New Spirituality is embraced by humanity, it will, of course, change everything. And that is exactly what is needed now. This book contains an astonishing prediction. And that prediction comes from an astonishing source. Author Neale Donald Walsch says it comes directly from God. Whether you believe that or not, you will find it difficult not to be swept up in the startling and profound vision of our near future contained here. Tomorrow's God says, point-blank, that humanity will soon re-create its experience of God in such a way that our experience of one another will be healed at last. You may agree or disagree with the contents of this book, but you will never forget having read it.

The Light of the World

Reverend Potter holds that there is a great esoteric knowledge hidden in the Christian Gospel in the life and teachings of Jesus Christ about the evolution of the human race and its ultimate goal. This esoteric knowledge is also found in ancient cultures of Egypt, Mesopotamia, Persia, India, Greece, and Rome. Here can be found the belief of a pre-existent archetypal Cosmic Christ or God-Person. Jesus, being a recipient of this knowledge, achieved in his lifetime for humanity a \"New state of being,\" a \"New humanity,\" to which we are all heirs. Teilard de Chardin referred to this new state of being as Christ's \"third nature,\" meaning that his human and divine natures transcended into a third realm that is neither human nor divine but cosmic. Chardin refers to this process of transformation as the Christification (Divinization) of humanity. Reverend Potter believes that the ultimate goal of humanity is to birth this \"Cosmic Christ\" or God-Person, this Kingdom of God within all, as Jesus refers to it. This Cosmic birth is a shift from terrestrial life to universal life where humanity realizes its Oneness with all creation. This new \"Cosmic birth, this Kingdom of God within achieved by Jesus Christ, to which we are all heirs as he foretold, is the Principle of the Godhead active in history and can be seen working in and through the Israelite people and speaking through the great Biblical patriarchs and prophets. This principle of the Godhead can be seen moving in and through all the great religions of the world in every age. Buddhists refer to it as \"becoming the Bodhisattva\" or \"becoming the Buddha.\" The Yoga and Vedanta traditions of Hinduism refer to it as \"Self-realization\" or \"God-realization.\" Sufism of the Islamic tradition refers to it as \"becoming an adept or master on the path,\" by finding the inner Way. Jewish Kabbalah refers to it as \"achieving personal development and Self-realization based on the Tree of Life (Map of consciousness). Primordial people referred to it as \"all my relations.\" In the New Testament, Paul speaks of this as the Mystical Body of Christ. This Body embraces the whole of Creation and is the Body of a true realized and awakened humanity as foretold in the Book of Revelation, the book that closes out the Bible. The world, including Christians, has yet to understand the fullness of Jesus Christ's revelation for humanity. This book is an attempt to understand more fully the meaning and purpose of his revelation for the human race while looking at the revelations of other world religions and sacred teachings. We live in a time when the earth itself and all its creatures are in peril because of humanity's disregard for or lack of understanding of the cosmic laws that govern the universe. The most fundamental question for Christians and people in general today is what happened to the body of Jesus after his crucifixion. Did Jesus die a physical death, or was his physical body transformed into another cosmic state—a state that he declared is the goal for the human race?

Awakening to the Philosophy of Jesus

Throughout the ages, the Essenes have been a people across all peoples, a family of souls that has kept alive the religion of Light on earth. Religion is the bond of life that unites man to the divine world, that allows him to know himself, to weave good relations with his family and with all the kingdoms of nature. The religion of the Light, or Essene religion, does not belong to any people; it is only divine. It is the superior intelligence that guides men in wisdom and true royalty.

Tomorrow's God

November 2, 1975 at 2:00 a.m., Charol the messenger was shaken out of her mundane life. After a harrowing week, turning to prayer for help, she fell into a deep slumber, in which she saw angels surrounding her amidst a heavenly glow, heard their chorus of song outside the Gates of Heaven, and felt the presence of Archangel Michael overlighting her. Throughout the night, revelations came in waves to Charol about humanity's future. The next day, she began writing. January 13, 2019 at 3:30 a.m., Charol was wakened by an inner nudging and went to her meditation room. From the Historical Jesus to the Cosmic Christ: A Paradigm Shift of Consciousness

The Humanity of Jesus is a compelling read addressing the human side of Jesus Christ. Thomas Heaberlin speaks with respect and love for the story of Jesus, while presenting new, and in-depth stories of Jesus's ministry, love and mission throughout God's Word. He writes with ease, making a complex subject matter digestible for the everyday reader, balancing it out with the passion for the nature of Christ, helping readers become more aware of little-known facts of Jesus's true nature. Heaberlin recalls biblical places of interest and names, which have shaped the nature of Jesus, recalling events in a perspective, which will transport you into each sentence and scene depicted in this book. He also covers questions examining God's identity, helping both young and older Christians find a new-found respect and appreciation for God and His only begotten Son. Included are topics on Adam and Eve, the lineage of Jesus, discussion on Jesus's three years in ministry and many more."

FROM JESUS TO THE ESSENES

Jesus still exists and is and has always been available to those who are open to him. In this channeled book, Jesus speaks to us from another dimension to awaken Christ Consciousness within us. Christ Consciousness refers to enlightenment or the realization of our oneness with all and our inherent divinity, exemplified by Jesus Christ. Jesus lived what he taught, and he taught from a higher consciousness, one free of ego. Jesus was an example of what we all can be, a model of what is possible for every human being, and the messages in this book show us how we can become more Christ-like and live as he did. These messages are also intended to give you the experience of having a relationship with Jesus, as he speaks to you as if you were sitting in his presence. The channeled messages from Jesus, which this book is based on, were part of weekly online video meetings, where Gina Lake and her husband, who is also a nondual spiritual teacher, give what they call Christ Consciousness energy transmissions. The Humanity of Jesus Arguing that the way Jesus leads and the way we follow are symbiotic, Peterson begins with a study of how the ways of those who came before Christ revealed and prepared the way of the Lord that became complete in Jesus. He then challenges the ways of the contemporary American church, showing in stark relief how what we have chosen to focus on--consumerism, celebrity, charisma, and so forth--obliterates what is unique in the Jesus way.

Jesus Speaking

Jesus faced all the challenges that we face as humans, and yet he remained faithful to his Father through the power of the Holy Spirit. Ware helps us to explore Christ's nature and to learn, through the same Spirit, to follow in His steps.

The Jesus Way

The question envisioned and pursued in this book is how to discover a dynamic idea that fosters interdenominational initiatives for socio-economic, political and spiritual empowerment of Nigerian Christians today. It proffers solution by using the biblical-Pauline message of justification as paradigm. This book grapples with the scandalous divisions of the followers of Christ. Every Christian needs evangelical repentance. We can only grow together in the unity willed by Jesus Christ, by growing together in God's love poured into our hearts at our baptism.

The Man Christ Jesus

Each Sunday in the liturgy of the Word of the Eucharist, Catholics listen to three readings from the Bible following a three-year cycle. The reflections for each year A to C of the cycle should be read after or alongside reading the Bible passages to which they refer. The reflections take the Bible as the record, in various forms, of a loving dialogue between God and humanity. The practice and experience of dialogue in the Catholic Church, since the time of the Second Vatican Council (1963-5), both internally amongst its members and externally in terms of relations with other Christians, members of other religions and of humankind in general, has led to a richer, broader definition of what 'dialogue' can mean. This broader meaning is in turn enriched as a result of applying it to a reading of the Bible. The light cast by reading it through the 'lens' of dialogue brings into sharper focus, what Christians understand by 'inspiration' and 'revelation' as the self-revelation of God which also 'reveals' our own identity. It may make an understanding of 'covenant' in both the Old and New Testaments, more accessible. It may help to provide a different slant on and definition of what is meant by speaking about 'God' and 'creation', about being human, the articles of the Christian Creed and the mission of the Church in today's world. Above all perhaps, 'dialogue' brings us to the notion of the Trinity as the everlasting dialogue-dance of mutual self-giving of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Humanity and the whole of creation shadows or mirrors this dance here and now, and we are invited to claim our place in it now and hereafter. Christians often bring to the reading of Scripture a pre-packed set of a priori determined definitions of God, the Trinity, Jesus Christ and the whole story of creation and the 're-creation' called redemption. Reading the Bible, a posteriori, with fewer prior ideas, but using the lens of dialogue, aligns us with the experiences of its authors which led them into the mysteries of the divine which are beyond all human powers to describe fully. This is 'experiential' as opposed to purely intellectual knowledge. We 'experience' the truth of something in the heart, the head then attempts to record and make sense of the conversation! Christians read the Bible as partners already immersed in the loving dialogue, deep within them, of the presence of the Holy Spirit, of God the Father and of the Son. 'Heart speaks to heart' from the first instance of every human existence. They will find that their own personal love story of a dialogue with God, with all the ups and downs of life, finds deep echoes, reverberations and congruences in the story of the people of God recorded in the Bible. They also bring to the Bible, an experience, an inescapable, of belonging and being part of the whole human family and of being an integral part of the whole created universe. Dialogue with this exterior environment and with their 'invironment' is already an intertwined encounter with the Divine, which is drawing them on to a fuller friendship and the continuing dialogue of love. The Bible provides a mirror where they find a reflection of their own face and their own world. What follows here are reflections and not academic commentaries based on the results of biblical scholarship. It is hoped that the work of scholars informs and supports them and does not contradict them. Thanks are due to those teachers, preachers and scholars who, over the last 80 years, have broken the Word of God for this otherwise unqualified and still non-academic, author. These reflections are offered as a further contribution to the \"Year of the Word\" (2020) announced by the Catholic Bishops of England and Wales to stimulate reading of the Bible.

In Jesus' Words, Today: Humanity's Magnificent Future

Provoking us to intimate, fulfilling conversation, Conversations with the Most High will help prepare the Christian believer's heart to enter the throne room of God. A blessed resource each day, 365 devotions steeped in Scripture engage our focus and prompt us in communication with the God who gives us His attention. Peppered with quotes from notable historical pray-ers and experts on prayer, the short and timely narratives make for excellent discussion starters and listening gauges for conversation with God. Before Christ's sacrifice for our sins, humanity had to rely solely on the high priest to go into the "secret place" known as the Holy of Holies and petition God on our behalf. Jesus Christ's finished work on the Cross changed everything. Now, we, too, can enter the presence of the Most High God if our hearts and minds are prepared for worshipping and engaging in the life-changing conversation that He longs to have with us. Who would forsake such a privilege?

The Hope and Despair of Human Bioenhancement is a virtual dialogue between Transhumanists of the "Oxford School" and the thought of Joseph Ratzinger. Set in the key of hope and despair, it considers whether or not the transhumanist interpretation of human limitations is correct, and whether their confidence in the methods of human enhancement, especially through biotechnology, corresponds to genuine hope. To this end, it investigates the philosophical foundations of transhumanism in modernity's rejection of metaphysics, the triumph of positivism, and the universalism of the theory of evolution, which when applied to anthropology becomes the materialist reduction of the human person. Ratzinger calls into question this absolutization of positive reason and its limitation of hope to what human beings can produce, naming it a pathology of reason, a mutilation of human dignity, and a façade of a world without hope. In its place, he offers a richer concept of hope that acknowledges our contingency and limitations.
